"Be proud of your History."

Father Brown's Corner

As a parish, Canadian Martyrs is very young. Young children and young animals enjoy an exciting times full of opportunities and plans. You are making history - Church History.

Recently I received a brief history book - "Catholic in English speaking Canada"--- sharing faith with aboriginals and immigrants. I learned much I wish I had heard before. Children need heroes and models as well as parents. Birds and animals have instinct, from God, to guide them. We need history of our family, our country, our Church.

Another book 'Spirited Women' came to me, an exciting record of faith and loving service by Canadian women. Until this book was written few people realized what loving sacrificial determination these women gave to catholic education, health services and social needs. Thank you Sisters!

Be prepared to take part, every one who is a catholic and lives in the parish. We all share the mission of the Church. Offer your services to take advantage of the many opportunities and plans of a young parish. You will be making history, meet good people, make fine friends.

Your family will be proud of you and you will have a happier life. You are planning a new church. Take part generously. It will be worth it.

On Sunday October 28, thanks to Paul Fong's kindness, I attended the blessing of St. Joseph Langley's beautiful new church. Parishioners waited through 9 years of planning and problem solving meetings as well as extended fund raising.

We met many happy parishioner friends and neighbouring clergy including our Archbishop Adam Exner. All claimed it was worth the wait and effort.

If anyone is not a volunteer in some capacity --- give yourself a gift --- say "Yes" to be active in some program. Father Paul Chu is promoting - it will deepen your faith, build church history, make friends who will celebrate with you, when your church is built.
